

Centerville School NEWSLETTER

March 10, 2017

BOOKS - Profits from the book fair provided 702 Scholastic Dollars to purchase new books for each classroom and the Centerville School library. Many huge thanks go out to volunteers Barb Tatro, Kelsey Endicott, and Jenny Bruhn for helping with this successful event!

READING - Congratulations to the Tigers! They have earned 476.6 Reading points so far this month! Classrooms celebrated meeting their goals with popcorn parties this afternoon. The student body enjoyed book presentations from the 7th and 8th graders as they dressed in character costumes and gave reviews of popular books. Next week guest readers will be visiting classrooms as we continue our Spring into Reading activities. We have a new exciting book event planned, Books for Breakfast! Plan to join us on Tuesday, March 21, for a complimentary breakfast and books, books, books. The Kiwanis are bringing free books to our gym for families to read together while having breakfast. School doors will open at 7:40 AM, allowing parents to join us before work and school begin.

SCHOOL CARNIVAL - The carnival is coming! Friday, March 24, the place to be is Centerville School gym from 6:30 to 8:00! Come celebrate our school, our kids, and our community. The PTC puts on this fundraiser and all proceeds come back into the school. This year a "goodie walk" has been added, a cakewalk but with smaller items: cookies, couple of cupcakes, and treats that can be carried or enjoyed. PTC would appreciate your help if you could donate some yummy goodies, help set up, clean up, or help at one of the fun carnival booths. This is a fun family event to volunteer your help, please contact krolfe54@hotmail.com, kelsey@klickitatcounty.org, Centerville PTC Facebook page, or call the school. Be looking for a pre-order ticket form coming home soon with your child.
