

Centerville School NEWSLETTER

October 28, 2016

SPOOK PARADE – The school will open at 6:20 tonight for our Halloween party! Remember to bring a treat (cake, cookies, etc.) for the spook walk. Please be careful to watch for costumed guests when entering the parking lot.

CONFERENCES – Parent-Teacher conferences will be held on the afternoons of November 2, 3, and 4. School dismisses at 11:45 on these days. If you are unable to attend a scheduled conference please notify the school.

LOST AND FOUND – We have accumulated many items of clothing left at school and on the busses. All items will be displayed in the gym during conference days. Please take a moment to see if anything belongs to your child.

HOLIDAY CRAFT BAZAAR – The PTC is accepting reservations for the 2016 Holiday Craft Bazaar happening on Saturday, December 3rd from 10 am-4pm. Space rental is $10 until November 3rd. After this date space will go up to $15. Forms may be picked up in the school office. If you have questions please contact Kelsey Endicott at endicottkelsey@yahoo.com or 541.980-5638.

KITCHEN NEWS – Students participated in a Brussel Sprout taste/test survey. Of the 22 kids willing to try these “alien heads”, 14 of them liked brussel sprouts! A big THANK YOU goes out to Holcomb’s Market for donating a JUMBO pumpkin to our school! Garrett Slater was the pumpkin winner in a random drawing this week.

TIGER SUPER SALE – Centerville Tiger wear, tee shirts and sweatshirts, will be offered for closeout prices next week. Beginning Wednesday, November 2, tee shirts will be on sale for $3. and sweatshirts cost $7. Limited sizes are available.

VOLLEYBALL CLUB – The Goldendale Volleyball Club is having an informational night for parents and players to find out about an upcoming Club season for students in 3rd-12th grade. Wednesday, Nov. 2nd, the Club will meet at 6:30 pm in the Goldendale Middle School gym. More information is available at GoldendaleVolleyballClub.com.
