

Centerville School NEWSLETTER

November 18, 2016

WINTER – Please see that your children are prepared for colder weather by wearing coats and hats to school. Outdoor recess is great for fresh air and exercise, especially when dressed warm.

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY – School will be dismissed at 11:45 next Wednesday, November 23rd, to celebrate the Thanksgiving holiday. Enjoy family and friends as you gather to give thanks. Centerville School is thankful for our students, supporting families, and community.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING – Tuesday, November 29th, is this month's Board meeting. Meetings are open to the public and begin at 6:00 pm in the school library.

BASKETBALL – We have a great group of Tigers turning out for basketball this season! They are working hard to be ready for the first home game on December 1st. Games are schedule to start at 5:30 with the girls' team playing first, followed by the boys' team.

HOLIDAY BAZAAR – Are you looking for great hand-made gifts, stocking stuffers, home décor, western items, and other amazing craft items? Do you like to have fun, enjoy lunch and visit with friends and neighbors? Mark December 3rd on your calendar and come to the Centerville Holiday Bazaar! If you would like to participate in helping with this fun event, please contact Jenn Armstrong at our school.

RODEO CLUB – 'Tis the season to order Christmas swags and trees from the Rodeo Club! They make a variety of hand-made swags for $25 and do special orders. Noble fir trees are available for $40. Contact a member of the Jr. High Rodeo Club to place your order: Tatro's 509.261-1608 or Kayser's 509.250-2021.
