FAMILY INFORMATION NEWSLETTER

DECEMBER 9, 2024

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM – Thursday, December 19 is our Annual Christmas Program. We are preparing for a wonderful night of festivities. We ask that all families with a last name beginning with A – P bring single wrapped popcorn balls and families with Q – Z bring cookies for refreshments. Students are to arrive at 6:45 and go directly to their classrooms. We plan on having a visit from our special guest after the program.

WEATHER PREPARATIONS – Please make sure you are ready for inclement weather. We reach out to families via automated calling through PowerSchool (Previously SchoolMessenger). If you did not receive calls last week, or received calls and do not want to be on the call list, please reach out to the school. We also communicate with local radio and TV stations through FlashAlert.net. You can view online through FlashAlert.net directly. Go to: FlashAlert.net, upper left> View Local, Drop Down to Columbia Gorge Schools, Centerville School Link is at the top. You can now subscribe to FlashAlert messages if you choose. Stay Connected; Stay Informed.

CHRISTMAS WEEK FUN – Please have your child join us with a little Christmas Cheer next week. We will have some Holiday Dress Up Days beginning Tuesday, Christmas Hat/Headwear Day; Wednesday, Christmas Pajama Day, Thursday, Christmas Sock Day; Friday, Ugly Christmas Sweater Day.

MR. AMANT MEET & GREET – Tuesday, December 10 from 5:30 – 6:30 will have a Meet & Greet for Mr. Amant. This is time to meet our newest staff member and get to know him. Mr. Amant will have time to talk and share his educational and teaching strategies, expectations, and philosophies. It is a drop in and out event, so come if you can. For those who can't make it and need his contact info, you can reach him via email at a.amant@centervilleschool.org.

BASKETBALL EVENTS – The basketball teams travel to Trout Lake tonight for a 5:30 game. This is the last game for the girls, so good luck and play tough! The boys then travel to Klickitat on Thursday, Dec. 12. Next Wednesday is our last game of the season for the boys with a tournament in Trout Lake at 3:00.
